CARTER - FERGUSON

The wedding of Miss Margaret Inez Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edward Ferguson, and Edwin Herbert Carter, son of Mrs. Emma B. Carter and the late Eddie C. Carter, took place Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox.

The church was decorated with magnolias, a basket arrangement of gladioli and carnations and lighted candlebras.

Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr., pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, of Salem, and former pastor of Liberty, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Joyce Vaughan, pianist, and John Hall, soloist, provided nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of silk organza over taffeta, with a chantilly lace jacket fashioned with an oval neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a half-hat of lace and she carried a Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Roy Lee Sharp, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a street length dress of yellow nylon over taffeta, and matching accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow rose buds.

Ushers were Thomas D'Anna, Fairlawn, N. J., and Randolph McFadden, both nephews of the bridegroom.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception at the Appomattox Hotel after the ceremony.

For traveling, the bride changed to a navy blue dress with white accessories, and adding the white orchid to her shoulder.

Both are graduates of the Appomattox High School, and employed in Appomattox. They are making their home in Appomattox.
